Patient Attachments sections are designed to better categorize the type of document that is attached to a particular patient.

These categories or sections are shown on AxiUm as follows:

Each section or category is also divided into sub-categories or TABS. On the previous example image, the Intake Section/Category is selected (left side). More sub-categories/TABS are displayed on the right side of the screen.
Main Tool Bar

- Preview Document
- Print Document
- Delete Document
- Edit Document
- Add new document